

Port of Benton

Located along the Columbia River in Richland, Washington, river mile 343 from Portland, the Port of Benton encompasses over 2,000 acres of industrial land, including 250 acres of waterfront, office and research park property where the barge slip is located. The low dock barge slip is leased and controlled by the Department of the Navy, with industrial access upon authorization.

TERMINAL CAPABILITIES

- Harbor: One
- Berth: One
- Bulkhead:
 - Elevation: 344 ft. MSL
 - Width: 96 ft.
 - Slip Size: 60 ft. wide x 100 ft. length
- Cranes: Third party crane services available
- Cargo Handled:
 - Depth: 15 ft.
 - Slip bottom: 330 ft. MSL
 - Normal water level: 340 ft. MSL
 - Facilities:
 - Vacant land adjacent for industrial staging uses
 - One mile from transload and industrial facilities (access road 30 ft. wide)
 - Foreign Trade Zone (FTZ-subzone) #203
 - Rail-Served:
 - Single commodity (unit) and mixed freight (manifest) capable

Agricultural Products

Breakbulk

Bulk

Heavy Lift

Project Cargo

Ro-Ro
(Roll-on/Roll-off)

Morgan Weber, Sales Manager
BNSF Railway
morgan.weber@bnsf.com
817-352-6893